

From left: The Royal Horseguards, London; M by Montcalm Shoreditch London Tech City, London.

Imagine staying in a hotel that understands your personal preferences, remembers those little details, and delights you with the unexpected—that's Luxury Hotels Group. Featuring a collection of exceptional properties in the world's most desirable destinations, Luxury Hotels Group specialises in representing independent upscale properties, where individuality is celebrated and authenticity is everything. Whether work or pleasure, these hotels appeal to jetsetters who have a knack for originality and quality, and are willing to pay a premium for a one-of-a-kind experience.

CRÈME DE LA CRÈME

The collection of hotels offers more than your regular, run-of-the-mill accommodations. These hotels and resorts are experiences in themselves—interwoven with local touches, replete with modern technology, and exceptional in their services. Book your stay at these uber-chic properties, and you will be impressed with their standard of hospitality.

While some of the properties have a regal and plush style, there are others centred on rustic luxury. For example the oceanfront Zanzi Resort is a little known gem on Zanzibar's west coast. There are no crystal chandeliers or white gloved butlers here—instead this resort is a celebration of traditional African construction in the form of 13 beautifully designed villas along a private beach. Seven of them have private pools with thatched gazebos, where you can plan an alfresco dinner and savour delightful seafood fresh from the ocean with vegetables grown in the grounds. The Villa Padierna Palace has a completely different air—this palace hotel in southern Spain is the epitome of aristocratic elegance with its luxury suites and villas, five restaurants, 18-hole golf course, swimming pools, tennis courts, and an open-air amphitheatre. For those who travel for business often, the glittering Raffles Dubai is an ideal choice. Its plush Middle-East inspired guestrooms and suites, cocktail bars, jazzy restaurants and nightclub, and a beautiful patio overlooking the Dubai skyline make for a comfortable stay.

NEW ENTRANTS

The group has handpicked some of the most lavish independent properties around the world, and the portfolio continues to grow. One of the more recent additions is M by Montcalm. Located in London's new Tech City quarter, M by Montcalm is a symbol of modern day luxury. With a strikingly original architectural style, this five star hotel is beautifully designed and brimming with clever tech. It also embodies the eclectic appeal of its surroundings. Bars and restaurants range from Tonic & Remedy, an innovative new take on the area's former apothecary trade, to a 17th floor show-stopper with breathtaking views. The stylish spa, specialising in organic treatments, is studded with gold leaf Versace tiles.

Giving you a sense of British heritage is The Royal Horseguards, London. Steeped in Victorian splendour, this landmark hotel has elegant suites and rooms offering views of the River Thames. It also features a fine-dining restaurant called One Twenty One Two (named after Scotland Yard's world-famous telephone number), and Equus bar serving drinks named after famous guests. For a truly British experience, indulge in a cup of tea at The Lounge, where the time-honoured tradition of English high tea is still celebrated.

Another recent addition to the portfolio is Lafodia Sea Resort, Croatia. Just a boat

From top: Zanzi Resort, Tanzania; Lafodia Sea Resort, Croatia.

In A World Of Luxury

An island holiday amid a Mediterranean pine forest or a stay in an opulent Victorian-inspired suite overlooking the Thames—anything is possible with Luxury Hotels Group, which specialises in one-of-a-kind experiences in some of the world's most sought-after locations.

Luxury Hotels Group has handpicked independent properties around the world that embody what luxury means today.

ride away from Dubrovnik, this charming property on the peaceful Croatian island of Lopud is cocooned with pines and palm trees and surrounded by the sea. The ultra-modern suites come equipped with everything from an LCD TV to mini-bar and Wi-Fi, so you can stay connected while zoning out from everyday life. Sports enthusiasts can indulge in an array of activities including jet skiing and kayaking, while for the less energetic, there's always the option of lazing by the pool with a cool cocktail in hand.